WELS

Wels is the second largest city of Upper Austria, located in the north of Austria, on the Traun River near Linz.

Wels was founded by the Romans, who called it "Ovilava". Before the arrival of the Romans, the region was already populated by Celtic (Illyrian) tribe, but it was the Roman Ovilava that was the first proper town from around 15 BC. A capital to an entire territory, Ovilava had 4 kilometers of city walls and a considerable population.
